

APRIL 2021 FARM VISIT
HUNGRY HOLLOW RANCH, Capay
(Home of Boundary Bend Olive Orchard)
10240 County Road 85, Capay, CA

THU, APRIL 22 | 8am-12pm and SAT, APRIL 24 | 8am-12pm

Dear Artists and Supporters,

"The best part of my job is being able to wake up every day and see the beautiful landscapes of all of our properties. And watching all of our hard work pay off as we transform a piece of dirt into a fully producing olive orchard which yields the high quality olive oil we sell across the country" says Jordan Fricke, Field Operations Manager of Boundary Bend Olives.

This April artists can experience the fruits of this hard work at Hungry Hollow Ranch, one of four Boundary Bend properties (combined owned and leased) located in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Capay. This particular location boasts a variety of topography from the rolling hills- also home to neighbor Fritz Durst's Cattle Ranch- to the rows and rows of 3 year old olive trees that fill this sprawling 350 acre ranch. This is only a portion of the 800 acres currently being farmed across Yolo County, with another 450-500 acres being developed into 2022.

Boundary Bend is fairly new to the region but not to extra virgin olive oil. They are Australia's largest producer and distributor. In July of 2014, they purchased a 9-acre industrial property in Woodland which is now home to their olive oil mill, bottling facilities, lab, and admin offices – and a hub for its transportation of products to the West Coast and broader US market. Their brand Cobram Estates can be found at Nugget and Raley's.

Why Yolo County? "This particular area has one of the best, if not the best, climates in the state for growing olives for olive oil production" says Jordan who manages all farming operations which includes seven varieties of olives. "These trees have 2 to 3 more years until they are fully producing. They will be roughly 15' tall and 10' wide. "Boundary Bend holds high expectations that the trees are managed with the best intentions of the land in mind. Areas that do not have trees are left for wildlife and native plants to flourish.

On this visit, artists will have elevated views of the orchards and hillsides with cattle and barns. We hope to see the yellow of wild mustard, orange from the fiddleneck and red, blue and purple of the wildflowers. And of course, as Jordan describes, "we can enjoy the way the hardy olive trees grow - with their green and silver leaves, the grey bark, and- when the timing's just right- the yellow flower that turns into the olive that holds one of mother nature's gifts, extra virgin olive oil."

To Our Art and Ag Artists,

To ensure everyone's safety, YoloArts Greeters are taking the following precautions:

- We will be wearing face coverings
- We will practice 6' social distancing
- We will check each artist off the RSVP list and ensure that no equipment (clipboard, pen and paper) is shared.

Just as importantly, we are asking artists to take the following precautions

- Upon check-in, remain in your car (provide visual confirmation of possession of face covering)
- Wear face coverings while interacting (at a safe distance) with other artists and using restrooms.
- Use restrooms when absolutely necessary. Wash hands.
- Stay at home if you are feeling sick

If you have specific questions not addressed here or on our website please feel free to contact us. We will keep you updated on any changes.

PORTAPOTTY AVAILABLE - THANK YOU! HOPE TO SEE YOU SOON!

A STEP BACK IN TIME AT OLIVER FARMS, WOODLAND

Thank you to the amazing Sally Oliver for opening up your farm to nearly 100 artists in March. There was so much history and beauty to capture with canvas and camera!
